

MASTER CUSTOMS SPECIALIST (MCS) COURSE

Module 6: AD/CVD | Quiz

- 1) Countervailing duties are used to counteract the pricing impacts of subsidies.
 - True
 - False

- 2) The WTO considers dumping to be illegal.
 - True
 - False

- 3) The WTO AD Agreement specifies which method to determine the fair market price?
 - Domestic market price—Net price in the domestic market to unrelated purchasers
 - Export price—Exporter's sales price to another country
 - Constructed value—Combination of the exporter's production costs, other expenses and normal profit margins
 - All of the above

- 4) The WTO AD and CVD Agreements only require the activity to be proven to exist in order for the WTO to take action.
 - True
 - False

- 5) Anyone can petition the DOC to initiate an AD/CVD investigation.
 - True
 - False

- 6) DOC, through the ITA, establishes the duty rate and scope of AD and CVD Orders.
 - True
 - False

- 7) AD/CVD Scope Determinations include HTSUS codes that can be relied upon to determine if a product is subject to AD/CVD.
- True
 - False
- 8) DOC will provide a scope ruling to importers seeking to determine if their product is subject to AD/CVD.
- True
 - False
- 9) Non-reimbursement statements must be filed at the time of entry.
- True
 - False
- 10) Refunds of AD/CVD duties are allowed for overpayment of duty or decreases in duty rate.
- True
 - False