

MASTER CUSTOMS SPECIALIST (MCS) COURSE

Module 7: Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) | Quiz

- 1) Some of the global risks of counterfeits include:
 - Counterfeits fund criminal organizations including human trafficking
 - Counterfeits circumvent quality control measures
 - Counterfeits can discourage innovation
 - All of the above

- 2) Intellectual Property Rights have not been designated a Priority Trade Issue.
 - True
 - False

- 3) According to CBP's Intellectual Property Rights FY2018 Seizure Statistics, the most commonly seized counterfeit product is:
 - Handbags
 - Watches
 - Apparel and accessories
 - Toys

- 4) CBP has specialized IPR Strike Units focused on real-time enforcement centered on audits.
 - True
 - False

- 5) CBP coordinates criminal investigations with Immigrations and Customs Enforcement (ICE) and Homeland Security Investigations (HSI).
 - True
 - False

- 6) The U.S. State Department considers IPR risks when negotiating trade agreements.
 - True
 - False

- 7) Gray market goods are prohibited from importation and can never be imported.
- True
 - False
- 8) CBP routinely checks all trademarks registered within the U.S. so additional registration is not necessary.
- True
 - False
- 9) CBP prefers to receive information from IPR holders through which method?
- A) Product Guides
 - B) Webinars
 - C) Both A and B
 - D) Neither A nor B
- 10) If you know of any suspect shipments, you can report any information you have to CBP through eAllegations.
- True
 - False